

EVANGELISM IN A POST-TRUTH WORLD

Overview

Focus

Arrow is committed to developing leaders who lead more to Jesus, both personally and through resourcing others to play their part in God's mission to his world. Yet, we live in a Post-Truth world, where many don't even see Christianity as of interest, let alone of importance. This module explores how we might best engage our cultural context with the good news of Jesus.

MENTOR

- Explore your thoughts about what part evangelism plays in your ministry. Where do you see some of the challenges in a Post-Truth world? How do you seek to address these?
- Talk about what is going to help you be faithful in prayer for those you've identified who don't yet know Christ.

PEER CELLS

- Share your own stories of coming to faith during the peer cell meeting on the residential.
- Conduct the listening on the street exercise during your second meeting after the residential. All the materials you need for this, including a guide on how to do it, are on the ALP16 webpage.
