

LEADERSHIP DEFINITIONS

Read the statements below. Give each a letter grade according to the following scale.

- 'A leader is a person with a God-given capacity and a God-given responsibility to influence a specific group of people towards God's purposes for the group.' Robert Clinton _____
- 'The leader is the keeper of the vision.' Bishop Graham Cray _____
- 'The only way to lead people is to show them a future: a leader is a dealer in hope.' Napoléon _____
- 'The first essential characteristic of leaders is that they are going somewhere, in other words they are aiming at goals or objectives that lie in the future.' Tom Marshall _____
- 'Leadership is the capacity and the will to rally men and women to a common purpose and the character with which to inspire confidence.' Field Marshal Montgomery _____
- 'A good leader is one who leaves behind them men and women who possess the conviction and the will to carry on without them.' Lydia Dunn _____
- 'A leader's task is to see what others do not see and then get them to follow. It's knowing the next step and how to get there' Todd Hunter _____
- 'A Christian leader is someone who is called to lead; leads with and through Christ-like character; and demonstrates the functional competencies that permit effective leadership to take place.' George Barna _____
- 'Leadership is an art not a science.' Warren Bennis _____
- 'Good leaders grow people, bad leaders stunt them; good leaders serve their followers, bad leaders enslave them.' Sir Adrian Cadbury _____
- 'I am among you as one who serves.' Jesus _____
- 'The supreme quality for a leader is unquestionably integrity. Without it, no real success is possible.' Dwight Eisenhower _____
- 'The heart of leadership is not in mastering the "how-tos" but in being mastered by the amazing grace of God.' Leighton Ford _____
- 'I am deeply convinced that the Christian leader of the future is called to be completely irrelevant and to stand in this world with nothing to offer but his or her own vulnerable self... the one who dares to claim his/her irrelevance in the contemporary world as a divine vocation that allow him or her to enter into a deep solidarity with the anguish underlying all the glitter of success and bring the light of Jesus there.' Henri Nouwen _____