GROWING LEADERS

Case Study 1

Sharon is reeling from a conversation with a good friend. Sharon had forgotten to turn up at a pre-arranged engagement. Her friend was upset and angry. In the course of the conversation over the phone, her friend said: 'Are you ever going to change?' Reflecting on the conversation Sharon knows this isn't the first time she's let her friend down. How can Sharon respond to this situation in a way which grows Christ-like character?

Case Study 2

Onde leaves the consultant's room disappointed. For the last two years he's struggled with an ongoing health issue. And now he's been told the wound won't heal. He'll have to live with it for the rest of his life. The wound causes discomfort on a regular basis, but he can still do most things. How can Onde respond to this ongoing situation in a way which grows Christ-like character?

Case Study 3

Rebecca is fed up. Her boss seems to have it in for her. No matter what she does, how hard she works, how careful she is, she always gets criticised. When she started the job she was certain that this was where God wanted her. Now, two years on, she isn't so sure. How can Rebecca respond to this ongoing situation in a way which grows Christ-like character?

Case Study 4

Simon can't believe he's 'fallen' again. He'd done so well over the last six months, and now he feels he's back to the starting blocks all over again. What makes it worse is that he despises himself for it, he hates this part of his character that does not seem able to control his addiction to pornography. How can Simon respond to this ongoing issue in a way which grows Christ-like character?

For Journaling/Mentor
